Career Counselling Programme on “Guidance for Competitive Examinations”

Report – 25.07.2022

The Career Guidance and Placement Cell of the College conducted a Career Counselling Programme on the topic “Guidance for Competitive Examinations” on 25th July 2022 for all the III U.G and II P.G students at 2.15 p.m in the Auditorium. The programme was organised in order to:

- Orient the students about TNPSC and Bank Examinations.
- Emphasise the importance of writing such examinations.
- Motivate the students to enrol in the coaching class to be offered by Suresh IAS Academy in our College Campus at concessional fee.

Dr.E.Vasuki, Assistant Professor, P.G. and Research Department of Tamil was the Guest Speaker. The speaker gave an in-depth information about the types of TNPSC Group Exams, that is, Group IV, Group III, Group II and Group I with different stages in each Group Exam like preliminary examination, main written examination, eligibility criteria, concession in case of candidates who have passed typing (English and Tamil – both lower and higher), different posts in each type of Group Exams like VAO, clerks, assistant commercial tax officer, deputy tahsildar, deputy collector and so on. The guest speaker also gave an overview about bank examinations conducted by nationalised banks in India by explaining the areas to be focused by the students. Detailed information was given to students about the coaching, course content, materials, time duration and model test. Doubts of the students were also clarified. Students were requested to give their names to their class representatives by 2.00 p.m on 26th July 2022 to Dr.V.Shyamala Susan, Coordinator of Career Guidance and Placement Cell. Totally 492 students of III UG and II PG attended the programme and obtained information about TNPSC Exams, Bank Exams and the coaching to be offered by Suresh IAS Academy at concessional fee with study materials.

Report on NET/SET Coaching 2022-2023

Every year, SET/NET coaching classes are held for our PG students as a career-oriented coaching program. The course has been conducted for fifteen days this year. The classes are taken by our department faculty members in Zero Hours. Students are given practice question papers sets focusing on NET/SET pattern. Few Mock tests are conducted at the end of program. The programme gives our students the confidence to take such tests in the future and gives them the chance to pursue their career goals.

Workshop on Entrepreneurship and Innovation as Career Opportunity

11.11.2022

Report

Online workshop on the topic “Entrepreneurship and Innovation as Career Opportunity” was conducted by Entrepreneurship Development Cell in Google Meet at 6.00 p.m. in order to:

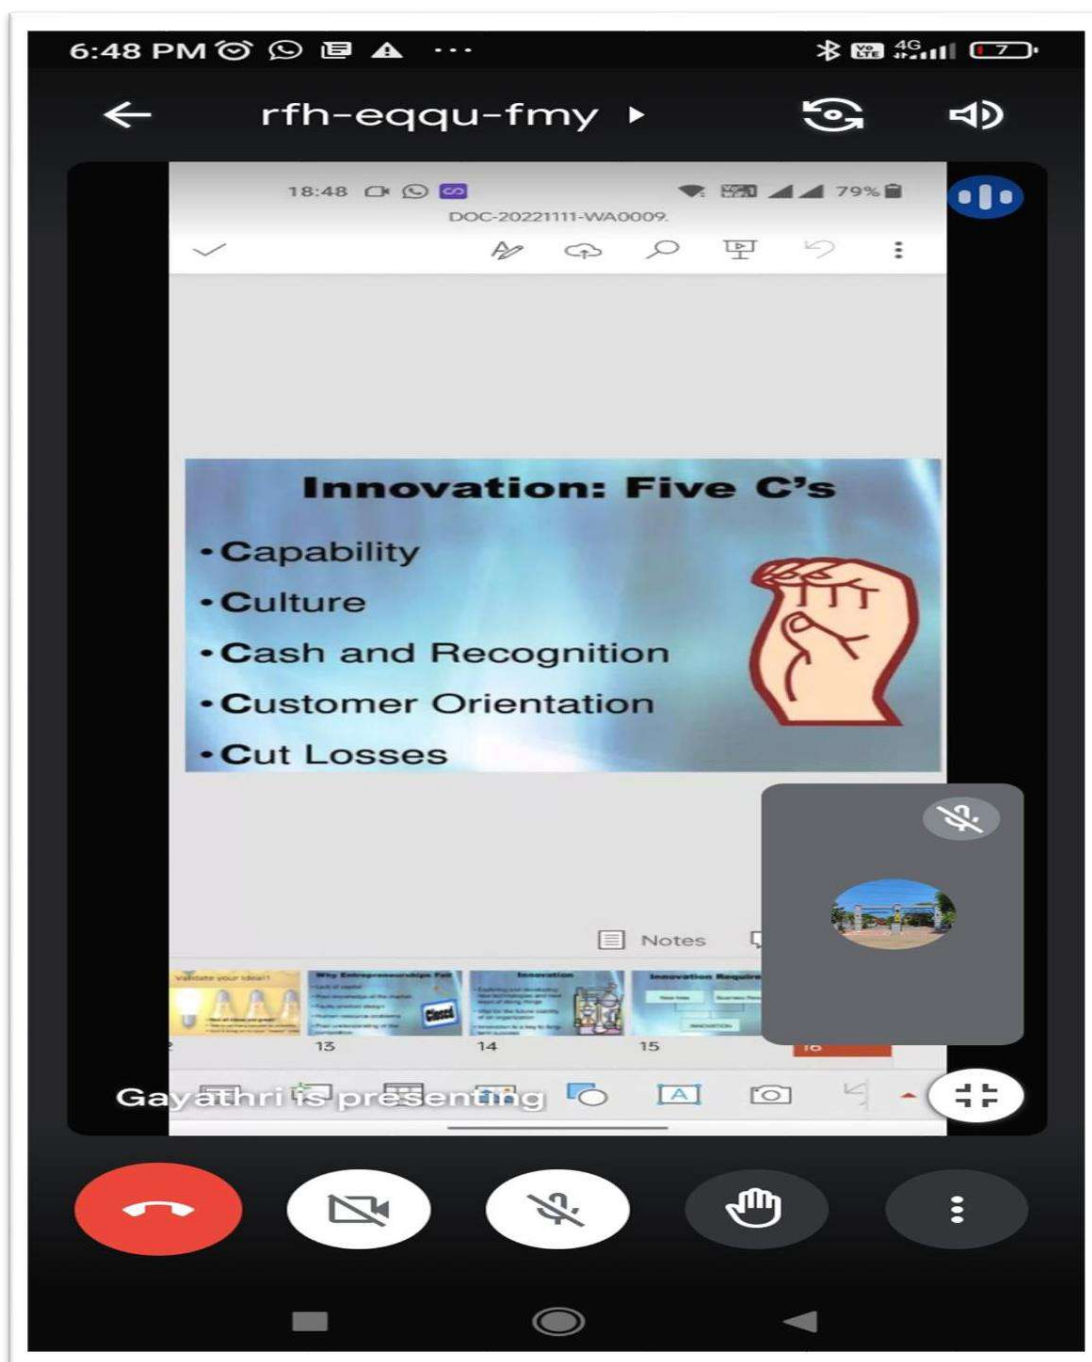

- Create an awareness about entrepreneurship and innovation
- Emphasise the importance of entrepreneurship as a good career option among the students.

Ms. Gayathri, Freelancer and Affiliator at 101 Block Chain Company, Chennai was the Resource Person. Ms. Gayathri started her presentation by giving an overview about entrepreneurship, innovation, and need for both in today’s scenario. She listed out the areas in which students can start their business even at small level. She also suggested how to create an innovative product or service motivated the students to be a job provider rather than a job seeker. The resource person also highlighted the schemes like Mudra Yojana Scheme, Bharathiya Mahila Bank Business Loan, Udyogini Scheme introduced by the Government to promote start ups and innovation. She also presented a list of successful women entrepreneurs in India and in Tamil Nadu and actresses who have become entrepreneurs.

58 students attended the programme and gained in depth knowledge about innovation, the 5 Cs required for innovation, what should not be done, SWOT analysis to be done before starting a business, time management techniques, schemes introduced by the Government to support entrepreneurs and about successful women entrepreneurs in India and in Tamil Nadu.
