2019 – 2020

Report of the Bridge Course

The Bridge Course in English was conducted for the I UG students from (17.07.2019 to 21.07.2019). The members of the Department of English handled classes for the freshers. The importance of all four skills – Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing – and how to develop those skills were taught to the students. The main objective of this class is to bridge the gap between secondary and tertiary education. The basics of grammar were taught to the students. Activities like debates, games, and group discussions were conducted. Audio and Video Clippings were shown to the students to improve their listening skills. Reading Cards were distributed among the students in order to improve their communicative skills. On the last day, their levels of understanding were tested and their scores were assessed and recorded. The papers were evaluated and marks were recorded. Feedback was also collected. 731 Students benefited from this course.
