Excel Club

Activity Report (2014 - 2015)

The activities of the EXCEL Club for the academic year, 2014 –'15 were commenced by its faculty in charge, Dr. D. Sankary, Associate Professor of English on 26.08.2015. More than a hundred undergraduate students have enrolled themselves for the skill development classes to be conducted by the club throughout the academic year. The club was involved in training its members in the major language skills namely, listening, speaking, reading, and writing along with the other related sub-skills. These skill development classes were conducted in the seminar hall between 1.30p.m and 3.30p.m during the working days. So far, 30 hours of training in the various skills has been imparted to the students. This skill development process of the students included language learning activities such as, listening to audio and video materials, reading comics, role playing, singing rhymes, narrating stories and so on. Besides, this year, the EXCEL Club also embarked upon enhancing the Academic Language Proficiency (ALP) of the students by conducting the English Language Proficiency Tests in collaboration with the Shakespeare Institute of English Studies, Chennai, on 10.10.2015. This testing process was carried out in order to assess the specific skills of students in aspects such as employability skills, vocabulary, spelling, pronunciation, grammar and verbal reasoning. A total of 48 students have been benefitted by this venture.
